Joining the library

- Employee or student of Zuyd University? You can borrow for free from Zuyd Library as long as you are connected to the university.
- Are you a student? In this case your student card is also your library card.
- Are you an employee? Upgrade your employee card to library card.
- Visitor to Zuyd University pays € 10,- per year. Membership can commence at any given time
- You may be asked for proof of identity (e.g. valid student card, passport, driver's licence)

Lost or theft of your IHOL library card

- Should your IHOL card be lost or stolen let us know as soon as possible. Your card will be cancelled to avoid misuse
- A new library card can be obtained from the library desk (charge € 5,- or free on presentation of a police report). A new student card can be obtained at the Enrolment Office (charge € 10,- or free on presentation of a police report).

Borrowing

General

- Material may only be borrowed from Zuyd Library on presentation of a valid library card
- The registered borrower is responsible for all articles borrowed in his/her name

Number of items which may be borrowed

Students: max. 8
 Employees: max. 20
 External members: max. 4

Loan period

- 3 weeks
- Some materials have limitations placed on the loan period
- Journals can be borrowed for one week. The most recent issue cannot be borrowed
- Reference books are available for inspection and cannot be borrowed

Reservations and renewals

- After the due date has passed the loan period can be renewed
- On-line loan renewal is possible (max. 4 times)
- Renewal is not possible if the item has been reserved
- Should on-line renewal not be possible, ie due to outstanding fines, ask for assistance at the library desk
- Reserving and renewal of material is possible at the library desk, by telephone or on-line.
- Reserving material from the Zuyd Library collection is free of charge
- You will receive an e-mail when a reserved item becomes availabe. The item will be held for one week after which the reservation will be cancelled

Inter- Library Loan (ILL)

- Documents not avaliable in the Zuyd Library collection may be requested online or via the library desk
- You will be notified by e-mail when your ILL requested item becomes available
- The ILL service is free of charge but only available for Zuyd students and employees

Reminders/Fines

Two days before the loan period expires you will be reminded that you still have material in your possession which needs to be returned to the library as soon as possible. You will receive:

• 1e Reminder

The loan period will expire in two days. An e-mail will be sent to your Zuyd e-mail address. The item can be returned to the library without charge or the loan period can be renewed.

• 2^e Reminder

The borrowed item is now two weeks overdue. A second e-mail will be sent. The item can still be returned or the loan period renewed, but a fine is due. The fine is € 0,10 per borrowed item per day, starting from the due date.

Invoice

This will follow, by post, 4 weeks after the expiry date. The fine already due will be increased with:

- replacement costs of the material (min. € 50,-)
- € 12,- administration fee

The borrower will also be excluded from all lending facilities until the invoice has been paid.

Materials with lending limitations

With day lending the fine increases on a daily basis

•	One day overdue	€2
•	Two days overdue	€5
•	Three days overdue	€9
•	Four days overdue	€ 14
	e	6.26.1

• Five days overdue € 26 (€14 fine plus a € 12 administration fee) +

a minimum € 50 book replacement fee

With week lending the fine increases on a weekly basis

•	One day overdue	€2
•	One week overdue	€5
•	Two weeks overdue	€9

Three weeks overdue € 21 (9 fine plus a € 12 administration fee) +

a minimum € 50 book replacement fee

- In the case of loss or damage of material you pay a replacement and administration fee.
- No rights can be derived from the (non)receipt of e-mail messages or letters sent by post.